

24th ETH Conference on Combustion-Generated Nanoparticles

With Focus Event

June 22 - 24, 2021, ETH Zurich, Switzerland – Online Conference

Sponsorship Opportunities

The ETH Conference on Combustion-Generated Nanoparticles serves as an interdisciplinary platform for expert discussions on all aspects of combustion nanoparticles. More than 400 global experts are expected to attend the 24th ETH Conference (Online Conference). This conference is only made possible thanks to the financial support from sponsors and exhibitors. As in prior years there will be no participation fees for attending, despite the considerable amount of work required and costs occurring to conduct the conference.

The organizing committee encourages anybody interested in the ETH Conference to support it by becoming a sponsor, so we can continue to offer this conference free of charge. Only the support of sponsors makes it possible that the conference can take place in its current form. In return, sponsors can take advantage of the following opportunities:

Other Sponsors

NON-COMMERCIAL SPONSORS	Sponsoring Contribution
Public institutions, trade and professional associations, research project/program groups, non-profit organizations, etc.	At discretion

The following applies to our non-commercial sponsors:

- There are no pre-defined sponsorship amounts. Every organization is at its own discretion to sponsor as much as desired to support the ETH Conference.
- The receipt of the sponsoring amount and its purpose will be confirmed in writing.
- The conference is organized by the “Verein zur Durchführung der ETH-Nanopartikel-Konferenz”. This association is a registered non-profit organization. In most countries sponsoring and donations are therefore tax-deductible.
- All non-commercial sponsors receive a brief report of the conference with statistics, highlights and key findings.
- There are no additional fees for participating in the conference.

We are grateful to these sponsors of the last ETH Conference, 2019:

Please support the conference and become a sponsor!

If you would like to do so, send an email to stockli@inspire.ethz.ch.
